BRADENTON — Celebrate St. Patrick's Day in downtown Bradenton with Main Street Live! An annual tradition returns, bringing with it an outdoor concert, food and drink, artisan vendors, and activities for the whole family.

On Friday, March 17, Bradenton's Old Main Street will play host to the coolest St. Paddy's party in town. Jacksonville blues and funk band, the Honey Hounds, will headline with an admission-free performance beginning at 6 p.m.

Attendees will enjoy more than just great live music, with local food trucks, vendor booths, and green beer from Old Main's Loaded Barrel Tavern rounding out the celebration. Kids will enjoy the rock painting station and other holiday-themed craft activities.

The celebration kicks off on Old Main Street (12th Street West) between Manatee Avenue and Third Avenue from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Organized by Independent Jones in partnership with the City of Bradenton CRA, this free family-friendly community event is part of the Main Street Live monthly event series. We are committed to making local news available to everyone. For the past year, The Bradenton Times has fought the fight to ensure that local government meetings and actions are reported. This cost additional financial resources. We also plan more coverage this new year, but we still need your financial help.
